Creating a Strong and Vibrant Graduate Community

General Information

The Creating a Strong and Vibrant Graduate Community project has been funded through the Strategic Priority Initiative. The purpose of this project is to provide graduate students with resources in order to complete research and creative projects, provide supplemental funding for traveling to conferences, and participate in an SPSS workshop to enhance their data analysis skills.

Three Opportunities for Graduate Students

1) Project Grant

Students have the opportunity to apply for up to $750 to support their research and creative projects. Applications will be reviewed and accepted in both the Fall and Spring semesters of the 2014-2015 academic year. Applications for the Fall semester will be available to graduate students starting October 3, 2014.

2) Travel Grant

Students have the opportunity to apply for up to $100 to supplement the travel funds that have been awarded by the College of Graduate Studies and Research. Students can apply for travel funding throughout both the Fall and Spring semesters of the 2014-2015 academic school year as funds remain available.

3) SPSS Workshop

Students will have the opportunity to attend an SPSS workshop in order to gain more knowledge about the uses of various statistical tests to better analyze their research endeavors.
