

Medieval and Early Modern Research Group
2009-2010 Schedule

November 20th: Curt Germundson, Art History. "The Idea of the Gothic in Kurt Schwitter's Work"

December 4th: Cecilia Pick, Modern Languages, "Goethe and Schiller for the Y Generation"

January 29th: Claudia Tomany, Modern Languages and Scandinavian Studies Program, "Water connects, land divides.' Rethinking the topography of the sagas"

February 26th: Evan Bibbee, Modern Languages, "Topographical Umbilicoplasty: Gilbert Cousin's Burgundiae superioris"

March 19th: Chris Corley, History, "The King's Families: Parents and Youth in Early Modern France"

March 26th: URC Student Presentations

April 9th: Kate Blue, Anthropology, "Neonatal Burial in Anglo-Saxon England"

Unless otherwise specified, all meetings of the Medieval and Early Modern Research Group will take place in the Heritage Room of CSU at 11:00 a.m. Please contact Chris Corley (#5191) for more information.