

Faculty Research Grants

The purpose of a Faculty Research Grant (FRG) at MSU, Mankato is to encourage excellence in research, scholarship, and creative activities among MSU, Mankato faculty by providing seed funding for faculty projects.

Congratulations to the Spring 2016 FRG Award Winners!

Sheen Chiou (CAHN)

“Outcome Measures of Life Participation in Adults with Aphasia”

Rachel Cohen (CSET)

“The Neural Control of Reproduction in a Seasonally Breeding Lizard”

Robyn Ceurvorst (CAHN)

“Socioeconomic Impacts of River Recreation on the Minnesota River”

Donald Ebel (SBS)

“Responding to Institutional Crisis: Strategic Decisions of Skilled Nursing Facility Leaders in Rural Settings”

Sun Kyeong Yu (A&H)

“Philosophy, Buddhism and Biology”

Russell Fricano (SBS)

“How Can Rainwater Harvesting Be Implemented in the United States?”

Mika Laidlaw (A&H)

“Buddhist Art of Japan and Thailand: Learning from Diverse Expression and Beauty”

Steven Losh (CSET)

“Genesis of the Magenta Zone, Northmet Copper-Nickel-PGE Deposit, Minnesota”

Russell Palma (CSET)

“Noble Gas Studies of Stardust Mission Samples and Interplanetary Dust Particles”

Lee Tesdell (A&H)

“Researching a Model for Teaching International Technical Communication in China and Minnesota”

Fall 2016 Faculty Research Grant Deadline

Monday, October 3, 2016

Please note that the FRG guidelines have been revised: Reference our website for more information:

grad.mnsu.edu/research/rasp/findfunding/internal/frg.html

FY16 YTD FUNDING

July 1, 2015 — April 30, 2016

Number of Submissions	89
Amount of Submissions	$14,991,781.79
Number of Awards	67
Amount from Agency	$7,230,304.92
Supplemental Funding	$703,927.86
	per the Business Office
Total Amount of Awards	$7,934,232.78